THE WRITING LAB

Do you have a research paper due but you don’t know how to begin writing it? Are you overwhelmed by having to write an essay? Is grammar and punctuation causing you to lose points on your homework assignments? If so, then let the Teaching, Learning & Career Center’s Writing Lab help you!

The Writing Lab offers professional learning specialists who focus on specific coursework and the improvement of writing drafts—beginning with the start of a writing assignment all the way through its final revision. Through utilizing our writing lab or attending one of our workshops, students can hope to gain the following:

• Management of reading or writing assignments into useful, step-by-step processes
• Development of an outline for writing assignments
• Utilization of class notes and other ideas for constructing or revising an essay
• Evaluation and organization of sources to establish a paper’s credibility and authority
• Enhanced word-choice, grammar, and punctuation application
• Improvement in overall reading, writing, and study skills

We Offer:
• Support Specialists
• Dragon Naturally Speaking software
• Computer lab
• A quiet and relaxing environment
• Online writing assistance
