Student Organization Handbook

LRCC supports student life and encourages faculty/staff involvement in student clubs, organizations, functions and activities, both as participants and advisors on a voluntary basis. Student organizations and sponsored events provide a learning laboratory for leadership experience and opportunities to explore and pursue interests outside of the classroom. Advisors are available to help students reach these goals while allowing students the freedom and space to grow and develop skills.

Creating Student Club or Organization

- Students interested in starting a new club must submit a Student Club/Organization Proposal.
- A minimum of three interested students and at least one faculty/staff advisor are required to initiate a club.
- Proposed clubs must align with the mission and values of LRCC.
- Club must submit a copy of the club's by-laws with description of membership & duties of officers.
- Upon submission, the proposal will be reviewed by the Campus Life Manager and Associate Vice President.
- Once approved, the club will be listed as an official student organization and gain access to student activity funding and event support.
- It is the responsibility of the advisor and club/organization members to recruit students.
- A club is considered active if there are at least three active members and holds regular meetings each semester.
- If a club or organization remains inactive for two consecutive semesters (excluding summer), it must resubmit a Student Club/Organization Proposal to regain official recognition.

Clubs/Organizations agree to:

- Be open to all students without regard to race, sex, color, marital status, sexual orientation, political affiliation, creed, national origin, age, handicap, or religion, except for religious qualifications which may be required by organizations whose aims are primarily sectarian. (According to all State and Federal Laws).
- Established groups are free to examine and to discuss all questions of interest to them and to express their opinions. They shall be free to support causes by orderly means which do not disrupt the regular and essential operation of the institution or any other organization. At the same time, it must be made clear that in their public expressions, students or student organizations speak only for themselves. Activities shall be planned and conducted with the awareness that CCSNH is a public institution.

- With the approval of the advisor and President of the institution, they invite and hear speakers of the students' own choice. It shall be made clear to all concerned that sponsorship of guest speakers does not imply approval or endorsement of the views expressed, either by the sponsoring group or the institution. Request should be submitted to the AVPASA
- Agree not to create social media accounts or publish online content. If a club would like to promote activities or events on social media can be submitted by email to the AVPASA. Approved content will be submitted to Marketing by the AVPASA for posting.

Club and Organization Advisors

Advisor responsibilities

Club Funding and Budgeting

- Recognized student organizations may be eligible to receive funding through student activity fees or institutional support.
- Fund request must be submitted using the Student Senate Funding Request Form. All requests should be submitted at least one month in advance to allow for the Student Senate to consider the request.
- Clubs are responsible for maintaining accurate financial records and using funds in alignment with college policies.
- All spending requests must be approved by the club/organization advisor, Campus Life Manager and Associate Vice President and processed through the college's Business Office by submitting a Student Organization Expenditure Request Form

Student Events

Planning Student Events/Activities

- All events, including tabling events, must be approved by the Associate Vice President, and Campus Life Manager.
- A Student Event Request or Field Trip Authorization must be submitted at least two weeks prior to the proposed event or trip.
- Student events should be for currently registered CCSNH students only.
- Clubs/Organizations wishing to host public events must meet with the AVP for consideration. Additional cost may apply based on the type of event.
- Clubs/Organizations looking to have a third-party guest attend or speak must meet with the AVP for consideration. Space reservations, equipment needs, and technology requests should be included in the request form to ensure availability.
- Events involving food may require additional approval or documentation.
- All events must adhere to college policies and the Student Code of Conduct.
- Promotional materials must be approved before distribution and should clearly state that the event is sponsored by the student organization.

Decisions on Student Event Requests

- Clubs/Organizations will receive notification regarding the decision via email from the Associate Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs.
- Approved events may require additional steps, and this will be communicated by either the Campus Life Manager or the Associate Vice President depending on the type of event.
- If an event request is denied, the email will include the reason and, if applicable, guidance on how to revise and resubmit the request.

- For questions or clarification, please contact Laura LeMien, Associate Vice President at llemien@ccsnh.edu.

Fundraising

Policy Students, organizations, and groups on campus that wish to engage in a fundraising activity, or solicitation must receive approval from the Associate Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs (AVPASA) prior to the proposed activity. All student fundraising projects, whether for a college-based cause or a non-LRCC effort, must have the approval of the faculty/staff advisor of the organization/club prior to submitting the request to the AVPASA.

The AVPASA may impose additional requirements on campus clubs and organizations to coordinate student fundraising activities. If the fundraising activity or solicitation conflicts with the fundraising program and activities of the College or Foundation, the AVPASA will meet with the group or individuals to resolve the conflict and reach a mutually agreeable solution. If a conflict cannot be resolved, the Vice President of the College will make a final decision. All funds received from fundraisers must follow the policy regarding expenditure for student activity funds.

Fundraising income must be processed using LRCC's Toast Point of Sale system, unless otherwise directed. Students are not permitted to accept cash and/or debit cards, or credit cards for any purchases. Organizations/clubs of advisors should provide a QR code for payment to be made for purchases. Requests for exceptions must be submitted in writing to the AVPASA.

Process

Requests for fundraising activities shall be submitted via the Fundraising Request Form. Requests should be submitted at least four weeks prior to the requested start date of the fundraiser.

All requests require the following information:

- Name of club or organization
- Officers of the organization
- Advisor of the club or organization
- Items being sold
- Cost
- Dates of fundraiser
- Reasons for raising money/Where proceeds will go

Upon the AVPASA's decision, organizations/clubs will receive notifications via email. Additionally, the Campus Life Manager and Bursar will be notified and provided the following information:

- Name of club of organization
- Items being sold
- Dates of Fundraiser
- Cost

When fundraising requests are approved, the advisor of the organization/club must work with the department chair for Culinary Arts to set up the fundraiser in the Toast Point of Sale system.

When fundraisers are completed, the organization/cub must submit a Summary of Sales form to the AVPASA, Director of Finance and Accounting, and Bursar's Office. The Summary of Sales form requires organizations/clubs to report funds raised.
